New From INSPIRE

<http://www.inspire.net>

LitFinder is the latest addition to the Inspire databases. LitFinder includes Essay Finder, Poem Finder, and Story Finder.

- Essay Finder is a unique database of full-text essays and discursive writing based on books published in the 20th century which have been analyzed in standard library indexes. The essays focus on the humanities and social sciences, and include biographies and literary criticism. Subjects include literature, history, economics, sociology, art and architecture, philosophy, psychology, science and drama.
- Poem Finder is the largest, most comprehensive and most current poetry database available. It is international in scope, and covers poetry from antiquity to the present. Its coverage includes well-known anthologized poems and complete works of many poets, with 800,000 poem citations and 85,000+ full-text poems.
- Story Finder provides thousands of full-text short stories plus explanations, biographies, pictures and more. The database will be updated constantly with classic and contemporary stories.

New Databases/ Full Text Access

ERIC E*Subscribe allows online access to ERIC documents from 1996 – present. All ERIC documents are in Adobe PDF format. Older ERIC documents are available in the IUK microfiche collection. When searching ERIC on EBSCOHost, documents in E*Subscribe will have an active link Full-text from EDRS which will open E*Subscribe and the ERIC document is opened in Adobe. You may also access E*Subscribe at <http://www.edrs.com>.

E-EROS

The IUK Library now has access to the Encyclopedia of Reagents for Organic Synthesis, <http://www.mrw.interscience.wiley.com/eros/index.html>. e-EROS is the online version of the encyclopedia which provides a systematic and exhaustive coverage of reagents used in organic chemistry. This encyclopedia is part of the Wiley InterScience subscription. You will find a link to this title in the alphabetical listing of Internet Databases on the IUK Library Electronic Resources Web page.

PsycARTICLES is the American Psychological Association's (APA) full-text journal article database. PsycARTICLES contains more than 25,000 searchable full-text articles from 42 journals published by APA and allied organizations from 1988 to present. The database covers general psychology and specialized basic, applied, clinical, and theoretical research in psychology. PsycARTICLES can be searched by itself. You will also find that the full text articles are linked to PsycINFO. Both databases are available in the EBSCOHost suite of databases.

Sanborn Maps

The IUK Library now has access to the Digital Sanborn Maps, 1867-1970, for Indiana. <http://sanborn.umi.com> The Sanborn Maps were produced for over a century and include more than 660,000 maps that chart the growth and development of more than 12,000 American towns and cities. Sanborn maps are large scale plans of a city or town, drawn at a scale of 50 feet to an inch. They were created to assist fire insurance companies as they assessed the risk associated with insuring a particular property. The maps list street blocks and building numbers including numbers in use at the time the map was made and previous numbers. A link to this resource is with the alphabetical listing of Internet Databases on the IUK Library Electronic Resources WEB page.
